Victim dies two weeks after attack

A MAN admitted to hospital two weeks ago with life-threatening injuries after being assaulted in Harlow town centre has died. The 52-year-old Harlow man passed away at Princess Alexandra Hospital overnight on Sunday. He had been in a critical condition since his admission on November 17 following the incident outside Harlow Bowl in Terminus Street. A post mortem examination will now be conducted in order to establish the cause of death, which is now being treated by police as manslaughter. Anyone with any information or who may have witnessed the incident should contact the investigation team at Brentwood Police Station on 101 (0300 333 4444 if calling from outside Essex) or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Hundreds take part in national day of action

STRIKE!

HUNDREDS of public sector workers staged a one-day walkout in Harlow yesterday in protest at Government plans to overhaul their pensions in a bid to cut costs.

More than half the town's schools closed for the day as teachers joined Harlow Council staff, hospital workers, police community support officers and Jobcentre employees on strike.

Picket lines were set up outside Princess Alexandra Hospital, Harlow Civic Centre, Harlow Jobcentre and the police station as staff made a stand against plans to force civil servants to retire later, pay more into their pension pots and accept payments based on a "career average" rather than their final salary.

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

PAH put contingency plans into action to ensure emergency and cancer care provision was not compromised by the walkout, while Harlow Council experienced significant disruption to its revenue and benefits service.

Harlow Trades Union Council secretary David Forman told the Star the strike had received solid support in the town.

"The response from union members who took action demonstrates the real anger felt by the rank and file in the town," he said.

"The Government want the general public to believe civil servants all have "gold-plated" pensions, but the fact is, the majority of public sector workers are on low wages to start with and the pensions were part of the package to encourage them to take on these vital jobs.

"Ministers now expect them to work for longer and pay more into their pensions only to get less back when they retire – the strike has made it very clear we won't stand for this."

The action received the backing of the Harlow Labour Party, and new parliamentary candidate Suzy Stride told the Star the strike could have been avoided if the Government had been willing to "negotiate properly" with union leaders.

MP 'understands' workers' action

PROTEST: On strike at PAH

"I think this is testimony to the failure of this Government to properly sit down and negotiate with people," she said.

"When you've got teachers and other public sector workers being asked to work for longer, pay more into their pensions and get less back, people have a right to say something."

But Harlow MP Rob Halfon told the Star the Government had been forced to take action to ensure the long-term affordability of the scheme, claiming that public sector pensions would remain "among the very best available", despite the planned reforms.

"I have complete understanding why some hardworking public sector workers have taken this action, given the difficult economic climate," he said.

"I have met a number of them in my MP's surgeries, and I believe that negotiations should continue."

"But the Government has listened to representations from me and others, and has revised the plans to ensure that public sector pensions will remain among the very best available – at a guaranteed level and inflation-proofed."

"Most will see no reduction in the pension income they receive at retirement and many low and middle income earners will in fact receive a larger pension income."

"Low earners making under £15,000 a year – that's 15 per cent of the workforce – will not have to make increased contributions, and another million workers earning up to £21,000 will have their total increase limited to 1.5 per cent over three years."

Lib Dem councillor Nick dies, aged 69

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertssexnews.co.uk

TRIBUTES have been paid to Harlow councillor Nick Macy following his death on Monday after a long battle with illness.

The Liberal Democrat stalwart had been a member of the party since the age of 14 and served on Harlow Council for more than a decade since winning his first seat in the Mark Hall South ward in 1999.

Following a boundary review, he was then elected to the new Mark Hall ward in 2002 for a one-year term of office before being re-elected in the same seat in 2008.

The first non-Labour member to serve as council chairman in the authority's history, Cllr Macy was the only member of his party to still hold a seat on the authority at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife Caroline and children Eleanor, Philip and Jonathan.

Former councillor Chris Millington, the Liberal Democrat group leader on the council until his resignation earlier this year, described Mr Macy as a "stalwart" of the party.

"As a councillor, Nick worked tirelessly for the people of Mark Hall and for

TRIBUTES PAID: Liberal Democrat councillor Nick Macy has died

Harlow," he said.

"In 2002, he was elected chair of Harlow Council, the first non-Labour councillor to be so honoured, and proved an able ambassador for the town."

"Nick's passing removes another link with the era of Jo Grimond when, under his leadership, the party began the long road back from the brink that has led us to being a party of government once more."

Su Lawton, chair of Harlow Liberal

Democrats, added: "Nick was a true asset to the Liberal Democrat group on the council with his background in finance and eye for detail."

"His dedication to the principles of Liberalism should be admired. His family are in our thoughts at this sad time."

Council leader Andrew Johnson (Conservative) described Mr Macy as a "spirited fighter", who had always worked hard for his constituents.

"For more than a decade, his challenges and contributions to the council chamber were always driven by what he considered were the best interests of local people," he told the Star.

"Cllr Macy also served our town as council chairman, a role he performed with great energy and enthusiasm. His family are obviously in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time."

Labour group leader Mark Wilkinson added: "Nick was a hard-working councillor who was always a very vocal presence in the council chamber."

"He always spoke passionately on behalf of the residents of Mark Hall and on behalf of the Labour group I'd like to pass our sincere condolences to his family at this sad time."

Cllr Macy's Mark Hall seat will remain vacant until the next round of council elections in May 2012.

Acting hospice chief takes up role full-time

THE new chief executive of St Clare Hospice said she is "honoured" to be at the helm as the facility prepares for its most ambitious transformation to date.

Acting CEO Tanya Curry, left, who has worked at the hospice in Hastingwood since 2008, was appointed to the role full-time on Monday morning and will now be tasked with delivering plans to provide quality care to patients in their own homes.

She told the Star: "I'm very much looking forward to leading and working with the team here at St Clare – they are all experienced and committed professionals."

"St Clare has always been a service built by the community for the community. For me it is about remembering our purpose whilst bringing stability to the hospice, in these uncertain times of financial pressure and the changing health economy."

"We have a vision of providing the quality of care delivered inside the hospice into patients' homes across our area."

"It's the biggest transformation in our history and a vision I am committed to achieving with the team – it's also one which I'm sure local people will want to see happen and support."

Support group backs lung disease crusade

By VICKY LANE
vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A SUPPORT group for people affected by medical conditions affecting their lungs is helping to raise awareness about a disease which is one of the UK's biggest killers.

Breathe Easy Harlow and Epping Forest is supporting the British Lung Foundation's campaign to highlight the symptoms of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

COPD – an umbrella term for a number of conditions including chronic bronchitis and emphysema – is a progressive, irreversible lung disease. But it is preventable and treatable with early diagnosis.

The condition currently claims the lives of more people than colon cancer every year. Early symptoms can be as mild as a persistent cough, wheezy chest and recurrent chest infections.

Pauline Love, chairman of the Harlow and Epping group, said: "We want to encourage anyone from this area who thinks they may have symptoms of COPD or who are concerned about their lung health to go and see a doctor immediately and ask to be referred to the respiratory team."

"There are nearly three million people

SPREADING THE WORD: Pictured at the British Lung Foundation information stand outside Asda in the Water Gardens are Breathe Easy group chairman Pauline Love, committee member Mick Moore and his wife Barbara (s)

out there who might have the disease, one in every six of whom live in Harlow. So we want to catch them early enough so they can be treated."

The support group is also encouraging anyone affected by breathing problems or friends, family and carers of sufferers to join them.

"Over the two districts we already have around 70 members who meet at separate sessions at the beginning of every month," said Pauline. "It is a great group and we have a lot fun together. Most importantly, we provide a lot of support for each other and help those scared to go out in case they struggle with their breathing some time away from home and a chance to meet with friends."

The next meeting in Harlow takes place at Purford Green Community Hall on Tuesday, December 13 from 2pm. For more information email Pauline at paulinemary_love@btinternet.com.

Funeral firm's fab night out raises £22,000 for hospice

A GLITZY charity ball organised by a Harlow funeral firm has raised a whopping £22,000 for St Clare Hospice.

The Rat Pack-themed event at Stansted Airport's Radisson Blu Hotel was the seventh major fundraiser to be hosted by Wych Elm-based Daniel Robinson & Sons, which has raised over £500,000 for charity since 1994.

Guests attending the black-tie event were welcomed with a Champagne reception before tucking into a three-course meal followed by live music from a top Rat Pack tribute act.

Daniel Robinson & Sons managing director Gary Neill told the Star the evening had been a "fantastic success".

"I would like to say a sincere thank you to everyone who supported the ball, and to all those who attended the evening for their generosity in helping us achieve this staggering total for the hospice."

"This really will make a difference to our community". Marie Davies, director of fundraising for the Hastingwood-based hospice, said: "All at St Clare are so grateful to Gary Neill and his team at Daniel Robinson and Sons for their amazing effort in putting together a great night of entertainment and fundraising."

"We rely more than ever before on the generosity of local people, to continue to provide care and support."

"It certainly was a night to be remembered, with entertainers, impersonators and an unbelievable auction helping to raise a staggering amount, which will be used to improve the lives of our patients and their families."

Schools to benefit from village bazaar

THERE'S a chance to do a little Christmas shopping whilst supporting local village schools at a bazaar being held in Matching Tye Village Hall on Saturday.

The event runs from noon until 5pm and is in aid of Matching Pre-School and Matching Green Primary School.

As well as stalls selling home-made gifts, there will be games to keep the children entertained and a raffle with a Nintendo Wii as the first prize.

Snacks and drinks will also be available.

Sharon Whittaker, vice-chairperson of The Friends of Matching School, said: "It is the first time we have done the bazaar as a joint event for the two schools so we are hoping to make it a huge success.

"It will be a really fantastic day that will not only help everyone to truly embrace the festive spirit but also help people to get a head-start with their Christmas shopping!"

Lottery grant for all ability sports group

A HARLOW based sports and leisure group providing activity clubs for people with disabilities is celebrating after being awarded a Lottery grant.

The All Ability Sports and Leisure Group, which aims to increase awareness and inspire people with a disability to take up healthy and active lifestyles, received £9,929 from Lottery distributor Awards for All to help expand their services.

The group has decided to use the extra money to fund horse riding and dance taster courses for their members for the first time.

Group chairman Neil Mann said: "This award has provided the chance to try something completely different and something we would not have been able to offer before."

"Horse riding and dance is a great way to take part in exciting and rewarding activities and will develop motor skills and improve fitness levels."

For more information about the group visit the website at www.allabilitysportsandleisure.co.uk.

Free parking and late-night opening in run-up to Christmas

SHOPPERS can take advantage of late-night store openings and free parking in the run-up to Christmas as Harlow Council teams up with retailers in a bid to boost trade in the town centre.

Car parks in The Water Gardens, Harvey Shopping Centre and Post Office Road will be free to use between 5pm and 9pm every Thursday from today until December 22, as many of the town's shops and businesses stay open late.

The council has also done its bit to ensure the town centre looks its brightest throughout the festive period after investing in new lights for the Stone Cross and West Gate areas, while market traders are getting into the festive spirit by offering customers spending at least £3 on any market stall between December 19 and 23 the chance to win a £200 raffle prize.

Cllr Russell Perrin, portfolio holder for regeneration and enterprise, told the Star it was important the town offered shoppers extra incentives over the next month as it competes with out-of-town shopping centres for Christmas trade.

"Harlow is a great place to shop or go out between now and Christmas, and shoppers can now enjoy the stores and restaurants but without the extra bill of parking on top," he said.

"Councils across the country are having to find savings, but we feel that ensuring our town looks bright and inviting at this time of year has a value beyond the cosmetic.

"We are competing with out of town shopping centres and London, so we need to ensure Harlow is an attractive place to buy your Christmas presents and go for a night out.

"Parking is one bill we can cut."

Allotment plots are wrecked by vandals

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

FURIOUS allotment holders have spoken of their frustration after being repeatedly targeted by vandals.

Tenants at the Water Lane site, off Paycock Road, say they have been "driven to despair" in recent weeks after having their sheds torched, equipment stolen and vegetables uprooted by mindless yobs.

The latest spate of incidents began last Monday (November 21), when a number of sheds were broken into and tools and personal possessions removed before being left strewn across the secluded site.

Vandals even daubed shed interiors with crude graffiti mocking allotment holders for attempting to secure their equipment by locking doors.

Then on Thursday (November 24), fire crews were called to the site after two sheds were set alight and completely destroyed.

Allotment warden and Harlow district councillor David Carter told the Star that tenants had been left "shellshocked" by the destruction.

"It's difficult for us to understand why we've become a target for these mindless yobs," he said.

"Most of the time they don't even steal anything – they just seem intent on causing maximum destruction and distress just for the hell of it.

"We don't have the money to install CCTV cameras or employ a security guard, so it's difficult to know what more we can do to put a stop to it.

"But we've got a fantastic little community down here and we're not going to let these idiots beat us – we'll carry on doing what we love regardless."

Fellow allotment holder Philip Ray added: "It's got to the point where you almost expect to find your shed damaged or tools missing every time you head down there.

"The police say they're investigating the trouble, but I think they need to try and do more before the problem gets worse or one of us gets hurt."

A spokeswoman for Essex Police confirmed the recent incidents were under investigation and said that PCSO patrols had been stepped up in the area in a bid to deter vandals.

Brilliant bookworms

YOUNG bookworms who continued to read during the school holidays have been recognised for their commitment.

Nearly 70 of the 200 pupils at Latton Bush Primary School in Riddings Lane received certificates for successfully completing the Essex Libraries Big Circus summer holiday reading challenge.

"Every year we promote the library's summer reading project and receive lots of certificates for children who have completed the challenge," said headteacher Lorna Handscomb. "However, this year we are extremely proud to have presented more than one third of the school's pupils with the award."

Cyclist was seen using bike track

SIR, Today was a red letter day for me. I actually saw a cyclist using the cycle track along Southern Way adjacent to Bush Fair.

I'm not sure how many months it is since this cycle track was completed but this was the first time I have seen a cyclist using it although I have seen several cycling along the road right next to it.

I am curious to know just how much this cycle track cost and the predicted amount of traffic that would use it that justified building it in the first place. I am not against cycle tracks but it would be nice to see them actually being used.

Whilst money seems to be freely available for the building of cycle lanes and bus lanes, the condition of the roads and pavements is allowed to deteriorate to a dangerous degree.

Potholes appear and get steadily larger and deeper until they are several inches deep before being finally repaired some months later. Once they have been repaired, a new pothole appears next to the repair within days.

The weather is always used as a scapegoat, especially if we've had a cold snap, but I am certain it is more down to the fact that the repairs are inadequate and resurfacing is virtually unknown.

The road next to where I live has not been resurfaced since it was built more than 50 years ago and the repairs blend continuously into each for 30 metres or more.

Once upon a time there was an expression "the patchwork quilt of England" that referred to our fields. Nowadays I believe it can safely be used to refer to our roads!

Pond works hit by lack of cash

SIR, In reply to May Abbott's letter regarding the state of the "hospital" (Oakwood) pond, I would like to take this opportunity to enlighten Star readers as to what is happening.

The Stort Valley Angling Society, in association with Harlow Council, has spent many man-hours working to improve the water levels of the pond by repairing and re-inforcing its banks.

Sadly, due to the continuing drops in these levels and the ensuing de-oxygenation of the water caused by the hot weather conditions and subsequent water loss, major fish deaths occurred between 2007 and 2008. As a consequence, it became unfishable and so the pond's management was returned from the society to the council.

In the meantime, however, there have been several attempts to obtain funding for this project from various sources, but sadly to no avail.

Grants applied for require not only the involvement of Harlow Council and SVAS but also a broad range of groups of interest, including local residents, schools and special interest groups such as wildlife and biodiversity groups, so it has not been easy.

It is estimated that a minimum of £60,000 is required to complete the main capital works of dredging, desilting, repairing and sealing the pond to prevent further water depletion. In addition, the water course that fed the pond has to be re-established by either drilling a bore hole or diverting water run-off from another source.

Finally, if and when all this is done there is additional work to be undertaken – landscaping, planting and re-stocking. This obviously costs money which, in these austere times, is apparently not available.

I do hope this helps everybody who is, as we are, is concerned about the demise of this once beautiful place. I

Disgusted by decision over our car park

SIR, I am writing on behalf of all the people who use the small car park in Burnt Mill Lane for the purpose of enjoying a walk along the town park by the river.

As reported in last week's Star, Harlow Council has now agreed that this car park be made permit-only parking for the use of Essex County Council employees at Goodman House during work hours.

This means that anybody wishing to use the Town Park on a weekday must walk round from the Moorhen car park, a distance of at least 220 yards. This is impossible for many older and less able-bodied people.

I think that this decision is disgusting, bearing in mind that various biodiversity groups have just implemented the building of disabled friendly footpaths to the marsh areas of the park. These are being paid for with Lottery grants of £50,000 or so.

This brilliant effort by these groups will largely be unused by the people they were meant for as they will be inaccessible to them. It will also deter anglers, dog walkers, nature lovers and those that just want a quiet hour or so during the day from using the Town Park.

It would be nice to hear from our councillors the reasons for doing this, apart from the fact they will get money for the lease of our car park.

Mick Westby
Fiveacres, Harlow

SIR, I am appalled that Harlow Council has ignored the people of Harlow and given our little riverside car park to county council staff.

What right does the council have to do that to us? This is our town, our park and our car park. The council is supposed to work for the people of Harlow, not against them.

These councillors are here today and gone tomorrow but we have to live with the mess they leave behind.

How dare they treat us like this.

This is not democracy, it is dictatorship – in our town!

They had better sort out that road if they are going to have all these people trying to negotiate that tiny footpath on a blind bend with kids, dogs, prams, bikes and disability scooters.

Mark my words, there will be an accident. Someone could die because of this.

Kath White
Altham Grove, Harlow

also thank everybody who has contacted me and other members about this on-going problem, which we will do our utmost to resolve as soon as possible.

Gordon Weemes, Stort Valley Angling Society and Harlow Ponds Forum

In a previous letter to the Star I promised a public meeting to unveil the final proposals and I am still committed to do so. I will continue the hard work to preserve our important community services for the long-term and will keep you all updated at every step.

Cllr Joel Charles
Harlow Council Portfolio Holder for Community & Citizenship

Best future for local services

SIR, Through your columns I would like to provide a further update on the work going on to secure the long-term future for our community services.

The decisions the council has taken and will take in the future are driven by one thing alone – the need to make the right judgement for the future of our community and the best future for services I know residents value.

In July I unveiled Harlow Council's plans to seek new managers for seven community services. The encouraging news is that, five months on, we received expressions of interest to run three of these services; voluntary groups are interested in two others and we are looking at the option of a community trust to run the paddling pools.

Rainbow Services has been working hard to develop other uses for the community trust and I aim to announce further proposals in due course.

Because services are currently going through competitive tender I hope readers understand that I cannot discuss further details for now.

I have been hugely impressed with the community response and it reinforces the fact that, when Harlow comes together, we achieve great things.

We continue to keep residents updated through the media. In addition, at every recent neighbourhood forum I have had a question and answer session with residents on the issue – and some very good feedback has been collected.

First class waste of our money

SIR, Harlow Council, along with several others, decided that to save money they would join with Colchester to control and issue resident parking and main visitor parking permits. Colchester became the "controller".

Earlier in the year Colchester notified everyone by first class post of this fact. Now we are being reminded that our permits are due for renewal – again by first class post. But instead of sending a joint letter asking people to renew both their personal car permit and, if they wish, a visitors parking permit, these are being treated as two separate issues, hence two letters.

Who in their right mind has authorised the sending of these letters as two issues and then sending the by first class post?

Yes, the council gets a reduced charge for their franked mail but it still cost 39p which is at least 10p dearer than second class. Multiply this by the thousands of letters that are being sent and we are talking of a very large sum of wasted money.

Have they not got a clue as what is meant by saving money?

I just hope that when Colchester passes back to Harlow Council the balance of the amount collected less expenses, that Harlow will query and demand back sums charged through this criminal waste.

Witnesses sought to burglaries in Harlow homes

POLICE are appealing for witnesses following a burglary at in Harlow.

Thieves struck at an address in Westfield between 8.30am and 4.20pm on Monday, November 21 after gaining entry by forcing a UPVC front door.

Two gold rings with a horseshoe on top (one with diamonds in and another with a horses head); a gold-jointed horse approximately two inches long with diamonds and rubies around the waist and a heavy gold ring without a hallmark were stolen in the raid.

Investigating officer PC Garry Bray told the Star: "The items stolen were very distinctive, if you are offered any such items for sale, please contact me."

■ TWO days earlier, another Harlow house was burgled.

The incident happened between 11.30pm and midnight on November 19, when a man came across a crying woman sitting outside the Golden Swift public house.

Agreeing to let the woman use his house phone to call her boyfriend, the victim walked her back to his home address in Collins Meadow.

But after she left, the man noticed both his wallet and laptop were missing.

The woman is described as white, aged between 21 to 25, of thin build, with brown wavy hair which was tied back.

She had a local accent, and was wearing white leggings with a bow-pattern on a brown coat with a T-shirt underneath. It is believed the woman may also have had a pierced tongue.

Investigating officer PC Garry Bray said: "I am hoping someone saw this woman – who took advantage of a concerned member of public – whilst she was sitting outside the Golden Swift pub."

Anyone with any information on either of the burglaries should contact PC Bray at Harlow police station on 101 (0300 333 4444 if calling from outside Essex) or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Labour's Suzy aims to Stride into seat

LABOUR'S newly-selected Parliamentary candidate for Harlow has pledged to give incumbent Tory MP Rob Halfon the "fight of his life" in the run-up to the next general election.

Suzy Stride was voted in as former MP Bill Rammell's replacement by local party members on Sunday and told the Star she couldn't wait to get to work in the community.

"I'm honoured to have been selected and I'm very excited about what lies ahead," she said.

"I know that we've got a real fight on our hands to take the seat back from Tories, but I'm confident we can do it."

Born in Bow, east London, Ms Stride has lived in Tower Hamlets for most of her life and works for City Gateway, a youth charity set up to help disenfranchised youngsters find employment.

A Cambridge University graduate, she became involved with the Labour Party as a youngster and is currently acting as an adviser to Baroness Royall's policy review on what makes politics count for young people.

"Working frontline with amazingly-gifted young people who have been held back from realising their potential by the barriers of social injustice has instilled in me a real frustration with the way the country is being run," she explained.

"Things are not the way they should be and I want to be involved with making the decisions that can bring about real change for the better."

Ms Stride said she recognised that a lack of social housing and rising unemployment were among the key problems facing Harlow.

"Housing is clearly a huge issue – there are far too many people on the waiting list and it is a growing problem.

"Concern over unemployment is another issue that has come up time and time again on the doorstep and I think that youngsters need to know they have a future.

"The Government's actions in scrapping the Educational Maintenance Allowance, hiking up tuition fees and cutting the Future Jobs Fund mean that it is becoming increasingly tough for young people to find work."

She added: "Harlow has a lot to be proud of but I feel it needs strong leadership from someone who can really connect with the community.

"Hopefully, I can be the person to do just that."

STEWARDS Students became judges when they played their part in deciding this year's winner for the Royal Society Young People's Book Prize – one of the world's most prestigious awards for science writing.

Youngsters from the specialist science school held special sessions to go through the six shortlisted books with staff from the Science Alive centre at the Leisurezone.

They were then asked to nominate as a team the one they felt most made the subject exciting, fun and accessible.

Development manager Geraldine Wright said: "The children all really enjoyed themselves and although it was difficult to choose a winner, the panel from Stewards finally decided on What Mr Darwin Saw by Mick Manning and Brita Granstrom as their favourite."

The vote will now be added to those of a thousand other children from across the country to decide the overall winner which will be announced towards the end of the year. (s)

BURNT MILL A dazzling new sculpture has brightened up the grounds of the First Avenue school after being unveiled to delighted staff and pupils.

The colourful new addition is part of continued celebrations ahead of the school's 50th anniversary next year.

Created by local artist Nicola Burrell, who has worked extensively with the school in recent times, the design is based around the Burnt Mill's relationship with the local community.

Headteacher Helena Mills said: "It is a marvellous piece of art that will grace the grounds of Burnt Mill School for the next 50 years.

"We are so lucky to be associated with such an excellent project."

Civic society concerned over future of museum

CONCERNS over the future of the Museum of Harlow have prompted the group set up to preserve and protect the town's heritage to call a public meeting on the council's plans to offload the service.

Members of Harlow Civic Society are alarmed that the authority is inviting separate bids for the service and its historic premises in Muskham Road and have asked councillor Joel Charles, portfolio holder for community and citizenship, to attend Tuesday night's forum to explain the council's intentions.

Society chairman Stan Newens told the Star the council had "flouted democratic requirements" by not consulting the public on the proposals. "The museum's present premises, as the only remaining part of historic Mark Hall, are part of our heritage and, with purpose-built stores, good parking facilities and beautiful gardens, are ideally suited to house the museum," he added.

"If the museum is moved, what will be done to maintain and provide access to Harlow's historic records and books and to retain an outpost of the Essex Record Office in the town?" The meeting will take place at Harlow Baptist Church Hall in Fore Street, Old Harlow, at 7.30pm on Tuesday.

Drunk who hit man in eye is spared jail

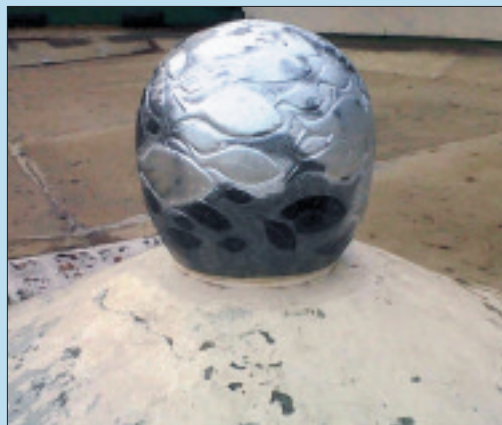

ONE of Harlow's most distinctive public sculptures has been vandalised for the second time in just over a year.

Shoal, which was installed in the Town Park paddling pool in 2009 after winning the Star-backed Harlow Hotspots competition, has been covered in silver paint.

The marble and limestone sculpture – created by artist Will Spankie from designs by pupils at Burnt Mill School – was previously targeted by vandals in October last year, when it was daubed with yellow paint and scratched with razor blades.

Councillor Joel Charles, portfolio holder for community and citizenship, told the Star: "It beggars belief that there are people so mindless and selfish that they feel the need to deface a sculpture designed by Harlow children and in a setting where young families enjoy it."

"I would appeal with anyone with information on this incident to contact the police. In the meantime, we will assess the damage and look at ways of protecting this sculpture from further harm."

Anyone with information should contact Harlow police on 101 (0300 333 4444 if calling from outside Essex) or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A DRUNKEN thug who left a Harlow nightclub worker with permanent eye damage after punching him in the face has been spared jail.

Instead, a judge at Chelmsford Crown Court ordered Jack Ayling (22), of Carters Mead, to carry out 150 hours' unpaid work and pay his victim £300 compensation after a jury convicted him of assault causing actual bodily harm.

The court heard that the incident happened at TwentyOneBar in January this year.

Ayling and another man were having an altercation at the bar when Mr Holloway, who had been collecting glasses, tried to intervene.

"I saw two guys having a little bit of a confrontation and as I walked into the middle of it, a guy on the right behind another male swung a punch and hit me," Mr Holloway told the court.

"He really seemed agitated, as though the other guy had done something."

Realising he was bleeding, Mr

Holloway said he then went towards the exit door, where he told a doorman he had been hit.

He was later found to have sustained a broken nose and permanent eye damage.

But Ayling – who pleaded not guilty – claimed to have never seen Mr Holloway before and told the jury it was a case of mistaken identity.

Giving evidence, he said: "The first I saw [Mr Holloway] was here at court – he's mistaken in picking me out. I had no reason to become aggressive to a glass collector."

He also denied rowing with another man.

"It wasn't me. I was upstairs for a while and then came down – at no point did I have an argument with anybody in that club."

Passing sentence on Thursday, judge Stuart Trimmer told Ayling: "You were convicted by the jury for a nasty piece of drunken violence – Mr Holloway suffered a deviated broken nose and other problems."

"There's no reason why he shouldn't be able to get on with his job in safety – why this happened we don't know."

Design a logo for Harlow's 65th birthday

NEXT year marks the 65th anniversary of Harlow New Town and to celebrate the Star has teamed up with Harlow Council to offer a talented young artist the chance to design a special birthday logo.

We are inviting budding Picassos aged 7-16 to come up with a design which captures what they feel about the town.

On Saturday, Gatehouse Arts, in West Gate, will be holding a drop-in 'design a logo' workshop. The free session, which runs from noon-2pm, will give you the opportunity to show off your creative skills and develop some ideas. All materials will be provided.

For more information, call Corrina Dunlea on (01279) 446404 or send an email to corrina.dunlea@harlow.gov.uk.

The winning entry will be used as the official symbol of the birthday celebrations which are set to take place throughout 2012.

The logo needs to contain the words 'Harlow turns 65' and should be bright, inviting and easily understandable.

The winner will get to see their design on posters, leaflets, brochures, letterheads and the internet. They will also win a family ticket worth £52 to this year's Playhouse pantomime Peter Pan, which opens tomorrow.

Entries must be submitted by December 8 and each must have the entrant's name, age, address and contact telephone number printed clearly on the reverse. No entries will be accepted after the deadline.

Council leader Andrew Johnson, said: "This is a great opportunity for a budding young artist to really make their mark in our town next year."

"Your winning logo will be displayed on a range of official council publications and it is going to be a high-profile 2012 for Harlow with the Olympic Torch relay and the Queen's Jubilee all part of the mix."

"So get drawing and sketching, and come up with something really special to put Harlow's 65th on the map."

Post your entries to 65th Birthday Logo Competition, Harlow Council, Civic Offices, The Water Gardens, Harlow, Essex CM20 1WG or email them to harlows65@harlow.gov.uk.

Spring Hills: gone but not forgotten

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

WERE you ever a pupil at Spring Hills School in Fold Croft?

According to online archive British History, the primary school was first opened in 1958 and closed in 1975 when the children transferred to Little Parndon School.

However, Stan Neville brought in this photo of his son's class from what he believes was either 1974 or 1975 and thinks the school was in fact closed later than that.

"I could be wrong of course, but I really think the school wasn't closed until at least the 1980s," said Stan, of Fold Croft.

"I remember it stayed open for a few years after that as a place for craft things and I am sure this photo of my son John's class, when he had Brenda Cotton as a teacher, wasn't taken in the school's final years."

According to Stan the photo, which was recently found after being hidden in an album, has got the whole family reminiscing.

"I was amazed that John (pictured in the centre of the back row), who would have been about 10 at the time and is now 47, could remember pretty much every one of his classmates in the picture when we got it out," he said.

"We first moved to Harlow in 1956 after I had finished my national service. It was before John was born but we had his eldest sibling, who was just six weeks old then.

"I'd never heard of the place before but was offered a job with a company testing scientific instruments. The job paid 4/10d (24p in today's money) an hour and came with a house so I could hardly refuse. Me and my wife thought we'd really made it!

"We moved to Fold Croft in 1965 which is why John went to Spring Hills as it was less than 100 yards away. All our kids went on to Burnt Mill."

Stan believes the headteacher at Spring

Hills at the time was a Mr Jewrey and remembers it being "a nice little school".

"All the kids were really happy there and I remember all the teachers being great," he added. "The wall along the front of the school is still there. It's a shame that is all that's left."

Did you go to Spring Hills School or have you spotted yourself in the class photo? Write to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

UPDATE: William Martin School art class

It was a few weeks back when we printed the memories of Australia resident Fred Watt, who thought he had spotted himself in the photograph of the William Martin School art class from the 1960s.

However, Yvonne Rautenbach (nee Darvell) - who originally submitted the picture - was quick to realise that Fred had got his wires crossed.

"Dear Mr Watt," she wrote. "I am sorry to say you must be mistaken about the art class photo in the Star. I am the little girl looking sideways and the chap next to me was my neighbour and one-time friend Kevin Riddles. "You are much younger than us and would not have been in our class."

"Kevin has family in the town who will be able to identify him but two of the girls on the table know him also. Lots of people know of Kevin because he was a fairly well known rock star when younger."

Linda Watson (nee Bishop), of The Readings, also got in touch to confirm the mistake.

"The boy in the photo is Kevin Riddles, not Fred Watt as reported," she said, "and the little blonde girl on the front left is me!"

She added: "I've had a great response to the photo since it was first published, especially when people say 'you haven't changed a bit'."

25 years ago in the Star

The Pope has blessed the people of Harlow after meeting MP Jerry Hayes at the weekend. Mr Hayes met His Holiness during a 30-minute audience with MPs of all parties and faiths.

Face masks to prevent police from contracting AIDs while giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation have been issued to the Harlow force this week. The masks, called Resuscitades and Laeradals, have been distributed county-wide.

A £3,000 sculpture of a lion and snake has been stolen from a wall in Rivermill. The bronze statue was taken after thieves smashed through wall, causing a further £100 in damage.

The new year could be the end of a Woodcraft Folk group unless they can recruit new adult volunteers. The group, who had all their camping equipment stolen last month, are facing more problems after suddenly losing four adult supervisors. Replacements are needed to help look after its 70 young members.

Oh baby! New record set at birthing unit

HARLOW experienced a baby boom in October, as midwives at Princess Alexandra Hospital helped deliver 415 newborns – an average of one birth every half an hour!

The statistic just pips the previous record set the same time last year, when 413 babies were born – and staff expect the figure to keep rising.

According to the hospital, the maternity unit will deliver approximately 4,250 babies by the end of 2011 – an increase of 100 on last year.

To manage the demand, the team have recruited more midwives and maternity care assistants, while the opening of a further two pool rooms this summer means the unit is now able to cater for more women than ever before.

The opening of the new neonatal intensive care unit in spring 2012 will also provide new facilities for the care of sick and premature babies.

Head of Midwifery Wendy Matthews told the Star: "The dedication and attitude of our wonderful staff is encouraging more women than ever before to come here."

"I want to say a sincere thanks to everyone for their hard work during our busiest ever month."

MP claims victory in fuel fight after U-turn

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertssexnews.co.uk

HARLOW MP Robert Halfon has described the Government's decision to scrap January's planned hike in fuel duty as a "victory" for his campaign to drive down the spiralling cost of fuel on the nation's forecourts.

The decision to postpone any increase in the tax until August next year was announced during Chancellor George Osborne's Autumn Statement on Tuesday.

Mr Halfon said the U-turn proved the Government had taken notice of the high-profile campaign he has run in conjunction with pressure group FairFuelUK, which recently won the backing of more than 100 MPs during a Commons debate triggered after an e-petition calling for action on fuel prices attracted over 100,000 signatures.

"I welcome the fact that this Government has listened and scrapped the fuel duty bombshell that had been planned for January 2012," the Tory backbencher told the Star.

"High petrol prices are literally adding to our dole queues and causing a poverty trap, as Harlow people cannot afford to drive to work."

"According to figures from the RAC, scrapping the fuel duty rise will save every Harlow motorist £30 next year – a total of £1m for the 37,000 motorists in Harlow."

Peter Carroll, of FairFuelUK, welcomed the announcement, but said there was plenty of work still to be done.

"Petrol and diesel remain far too expensive, and we will be fighting on to try and make the Government understand that the economy needs an actual cut in fuel duty," he said.

"A cut would create jobs, give people a little more disposable income and stimulate the economy – this will mean that the Government and the Chancellor will gain, not lose, by cutting duty."

Don't shop 'til you get enough

SHOPPERS were treated to a thrilling rendition of Michael Jackson's greatest hits as a local tribute artist put on four pitch-perfect performances in Harlow town centre.

Harlow-based performer Rory J staged the marathon two-hour shows in Market Square as a thank-you to local fans for their "amazing support".

The dancer – who performed a comprehensive set of the late King of Pop's biggest hits from his heyday in the '80s and '90s to more recent releases – told the Star the weekend had been exhausting, but rewarding.

"I wanted to put these shows on mainly to thank the local community in Harlow for all their love and support over this past year and to give Harlow town the first glance of my new set list before I take it on tour across the UK," he said.

I spy the world's most expensive mince pie

THE world's most expensive mince pie is now on show at a shopping centre in London.

The £3,000 treat was made using rare ingredients from traditional recipes dating back hundreds of years.

They include high-grade platinum leaf, holy water from Lourdes to bind the pastry, rare ambergis sugar and vanilla beans and cinnamon from eastern spice markets.

The pie also contains a solid coin made from precious metal platinum in keeping with the British tradition of placing money in cakes and puddings.

The pastry top was designed on a computer and laser cut to give it an intricate finish. It took 10 days for top chef Andrew Stellitano, who runs food design company Astarism, to make the luxurious pie.

The pastry treat will be on display for a month at the Marvellous Mince Pie Manufactory in The Exchange shopping centre in Ilford.

The lucky winner of a competition will then get to take it home in time for Christmas after a prize draw on December 19.

WIN Family tickets to Peter Pan at Playhouse

LET your dreams take flight at Harlow Playhouse this Christmas with the magical family pantomime Peter Pan. The production - which stars Chris Ellison (DCI Burnside in The Bill) as the dastardly Captain Hook and Jacob Scipio (CBeebies' Kerwhizz) as Peter Pan - opens tomorrow (Friday) and runs until January.

And this week we are giving you the chance to win one of five family tickets (four tickets each) to the 7pm show on Thursday, December 15.

Join Wendy, Michael and John as they take off to Neverland with the boy who never grows up - Peter Pan. Take part in their adventures and meet a fantastical range of characters along the way - Nana, Tinkerbell, the Lost Children, Tiger Lily, mermaids, pirates, Smee and, of course, the deadly Captain Hook.

Back by popular demand is the very funny and magical Tom Swift, who stars as Smee, while local panto favourite Patrick Jacobs is Starkey.

Don't miss this spectacular family pantomime from the team behind Cinderella and Aladdin. With lush sets and costumes, impressive live music, energetic routines, lots and lots of laughter and flying that will thrill the child in everyone, see Peter Pan soar to new heights at The Playhouse!

Simply answer the question on the competition coupon and return it to: Playhouse Competition, Harlow Star, PO Box 268, Cambridge, CB24 6HF by Wednesday, December 7.

Alternatively you can enter via our dedicated competition link at www.harlowstar.co.uk. Be sure to enter 'Playhouse Competition' in the competition line or your entry will be discounted.

● Tickets for Peter Pan are available from the Playhouse box office on (01279) 431945 or online at www.playhouseharlow.com. A percentage of every ticket sold will go to the Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity.

Learning how to keep calm and carry on

FOR many people Christmas can be a stressful time of year. For some, it is impossible not to have a row. Someone's fed up in the kitchen, everyone wants to watch a different channel on the television, relationships with partners and families are under the microscope and the in-laws are coming to stay. It's a stressful time.

But fear not. National Anger Awareness Week (December 1-7) encourages everyone to prepare themselves with simple coping strategies to create an atmosphere of calm and co-operation.

The reasons for the National Anger Awareness Week is to increase understanding of the underlying causes of anger and equip people to reduce their own, and other's, anger in an effective way.

Mike Fisher, author of the self-help book Beating Anger, explains: "It is all about learning to take control of behaviour. Everyone feels angry at some time, what matters is how you express that anger."

How people react to feeling angry depends on many things, including the situation, their family history, cultural background and stress. But it can be shown in different ways: sarcasm, swearing, shouting, bullying and physical violence.

It is important to recognise the signs on anger and deal with them in a healthy way. These may include:

- Counting to ten will help you cool down and think more clearly.
- Breathing slowly can help you relax and calm down.
- Taking regular exercise to boost the production of 'good mood' hormones.
- Listening to calming music and having a massage encourages relaxation.

- Talking about it by discussing feelings with a friend to help give a different perspective.

If unable to deal with anger issues speak to your GP. They might suggest more ways to help manage the anger or refer to another service for further support.

For more information about National Anger Week or more information on anger management, visit www.nhs.uk.

Knowing the facts will help to protect you from HIV infection

THERE are now more people than ever living with HIV in the UK — more than 90,000 — and around a quarter of those are unaware they have the virus.

According to the United Nations, global rates of HIV infection and AIDS-related death have both fallen dramatically.

Today (December 1) is World AIDS Day, a campaign which is asking everyone to 'act aware' by protecting themselves and others from HIV infection by knowing the facts.

Through a simple HIV test using a saliva sample, the results can be known in under 20 minutes. And while there is currently no vaccine or cure for HIV, more people are living longer because of more effective medication.

HIV is spread through the exchange of bodily fluids. This most commonly happens during unprotected sexual contact, injecting illegal drugs and sharing needles.

The condition can also be spread from a mother to her unborn child but interestingly only one per cent of babies born to HIV positive mothers have it.

Many people develop symptoms, although they might not recognise them, usually two to six weeks after they are infected. These can include a fever, sore throat, tiredness, joint pain, muscle pain, a blotchy rash and swollen glands. They are often mild, so are easily mistaken for colds or glandular fever.

Anyone concerned about the risk of HIV infection should request a test. Tests are offered in many places, for example a sexual health clinic in the community, the genitourinary medicine service at Princess Alexandra Hospital or the GP surgery amongst others.

If the results are positive a referral to professionals in an HIV clinic will be made.

For more information on any aspect of HIV or AIDS, visit www.nhs.uk.

You've been working up some exciting plans of late, but one might not unfold exactly as you thought. That said, with Venus connecting with the deep Pluto it can be a seminal time for work and business relationships or an important interview. If you're solo, you may meet someone in a more formal setting. Call now for your love scope in full...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21
If you're in the process of a big financial transaction, Mars and Pluto still urging one another on keep up the pressure on legal or financial representatives. This can also be a time when you have a big heart to heart discussion with a loved one. Once the truth is shared, tensions can ease and a revival be sparked. Call for your financial forecast...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21
Your key planet Mercury goes into rewind. Contrary to what is oft said this can be a force for good. In this case it can push you to re-evaluate your closest ties, and how you communicate. Yet if one tie is going well it can reach a much deeper connection. Sadly, a weaker tie can also come to a complete end. Call me now for your in-depth forecast...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23
Try not to jump to conclusions. We all do it, and when we do, we can get things wrong, because the reality turns out different to the facts. Equally, try not to beat yourself up if things don't go exactly to plan. Too much perfectionism is self-defeating this week. Yet a relationship reaches a crucial juncture. Call your prediction line for more astral advice...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23
You like to look after people at this time of year, Leo. Although the merriment can be important to you, ensuring plans are smooth gives you satisfaction too. Yet with Mercury twisting backwards, there may be some switchbacks and changes of plans. Prepare yourself and try not to expect too much of others. Call me for your in-depth forecast...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23
As the saying goes; we choose our friends we inherit our families, and some 'connect' there politics this week, perhaps linked to Christmas arrangements, can leave you cold. Try to be as generous spirited as possible. You may not be able to control others' attitudes, but you can your own. Anyway, things can blow over. Call for more news and astral advice...

By CHRIS MOSS

THE Playhouse is gearing up for a month of mirth, magic and mayhem as it looks to smash box office records with dazzling new panto Peter Pan. Audiences can take flight to Neverland from tomorrow (Friday) as the boy who never grew up enlists the help of the Darling family to take on the sinister Captain Hook.

The star-studded cast features Jacob Scipio – BBC's resident brainbox The Kermahizzitor – as the eponymous hero, while Chris Ellison, known to millions as DCI Burnside from ITV cop drama The Bill, plays his nefarious nemesis.

"We've really gelled as a cast during the rehearsals and we can't wait to get started now," Chris told the Star during a break in rehearsals.

"I really want to hear the audiences boo and hiss when I'm on stage!"

Jacob added: "Rehearsals have been loads of fun. It's a great story and I'm really looking forward to getting on stage in front of all the boys and girls!"

Back by popular demand following a show-stealing turn as Wishee-Washee in last year's Playhouse panto, the hilarious Tom Swift takes the role of Hook's bungling right-hand man Smee, while former Rhodes panto favourite Patrick Jacobs joins the cast as salty sea-dog Starkey. Playhouse manager Scott Ramsey said the show was shaping up to be the theatre's best panto yet.

"We're all really excited to get this magical festive pantomime underway. Everybody's worked really hard to ensure Peter Pan will be our biggest and best panto to date," he said.

"Expect lush sets and costumes, great live music, energetic routines, lots and lots of laughter and flying that will be a sight to behold."

"It's going to be a fantastic show for the whole family so book your seats now to make sure you don't miss out."

The show opens at The Playhouse tomorrow (Friday) and runs until January 2. Tickets cost £16-18 for adults, £13-£15 concessions and £52 for a family of four (two adults and two children).

For more information or to book tickets, log on to the website at www.playhouseharlow.com or call (01279) 431945.

Scorsese's family film leaves the kids behind

HUGO (3D)
certificate U, 2h6m

MARTIN Scorsese swaps the mean streets of New York for the wintry boulevards of 1930s Paris for this Oscar-tipped first foray into family films and also the 3D format.

Hugo might revolve around the exploits of a pre-teenage boy and deal with themes of childhood innocence and the death of a parent, but this impeccably-crafted adventure is too sophisticated for young audiences.

Apart from a couple of well-orchestrated chases and slapstick courtesy of Sacha Baron Cohen with a squeaky leg brace, there is little here to entertain boys and girls the same age as the diminutive hero.

Indeed, the cumbersome running time and slow-paced first half will prove a test for parents too, especially those without a love for the bygone age of cinema, which Scorsese indulges in every lustrous frame.

While the narrative has its flaws, adapted by screenwriter John Logan from Brian Selznick's book The Invention Of Hugo Cabret, the on-screen craftsmanship is impeccable, from Robert Richardson's stunning cinematography to Dante Ferretti's production design and Sandy Powell's costumes.

Even more pleasing is how well the 3D fits Scorsese's vision, coming to the fore as the camera swoops along the concourse of a train station or darts between whirring cogs of a giant clock.

Twelve-year-old Hugo Cabret (Asa Butterfield) is raised by his father (Jude Law), who works at a museum and has a passion for cinema and mechanical devices.

The old man dies, leaving behind an intricate automaton, and Hugo is forced to live secretly in the station with his hard-drinking Uncle Claude (Ray Winstone), who maintains the clocks.

When the bottle claims Claude's life, Hugo continues to tend the clocks while stealing food from the shopkeepers without attracting the attention of the station inspector (Sacha Baron Cohen).

HOMAGE: Asa Butterfield as Hugo Cabret and Chloe Moretz as Isabelle in HUGO.

An encounter with bookish Isabelle (Chloe Grace Moretz), granddaughter of toy shop owner Papa Georges (Sir Ben Kingsley), catalyses a journey of self-discovery that Hugo hopes will lead to a message from beyond the grave from his father.

Hugo whirs gently for the first hour, and only really kicks into gear once the boy inserts Isabelle's heart-shaped key into the automaton and reveals one character's true identity.

From here, Scorsese indulges his passion for cinema, lovingly recreating films of the era and paying homage to the early pioneers including the Lumiere brothers.

Butterfield is an endearing if mournful central presence, contrasting with Moretz, who is luminous in every frame.

Older cast struggle to put meat on the bones of their thinly sketched characters, while Baron Cohen's comic relief grates as much as it delights, including some surprisingly tender scenes with Emily Mortimer as the station florist.

Romantic subplots bloat the running time, running the risk of losing young audiences entirely.

Hugo is high art but our hearts fail to skip a beat.

HAPPY FEET TWO (3D)
certificate U, 1h43m

FIVE years after the original Happy Feet danced into the affections of audiences worldwide and won the Oscar as Best Animated Feature, director George Miller returns to the frozen wilderness for this pointless sequel.

Opening with a mash-up of Janet Jackson's Rhythm Nation and brother Michael's catchy Shake Your Body (Down To The Ground), Happy Feet Two is punctuated by a series of musical numbers culminating in a rousing rendition of Under Pressure by Queen and David Bowie.

While the soundtrack to Miller's film hits the high notes, the script is frequently off-key, heavy-handedly dealing with issues of parenting and friendship then laddling on the sickly sentiment.

But the ecological subtext about the irrevocable damage of global warming and mankind's responsibility to act now comes through lucid and clear.

Mumble the penguin (Elijah Wood), who learned to dance in the first film, has raised a son called Erik (Ava Acres) with his wife Gloria (Pink).

Like his father, Erik is struggling to find his rhythm in Emperor-Land and he searches for answers with best friends Boadicia and Atticus in the company of wise-cracking Ramon (Robin Williams).

Mumble chases after the little ones and returns home to discover a giant iceberg has slammed into their home, trapping all of the Emperor penguins to certain doom.

With time running out, Mumble compels Ramon to marshal the Adelie penguins to help with the rescue effort.

>>>still on screen

My Week With Marilyn Third assistant director Colin Clark (Eddie Redmayne) hails from privileged stock and thanks to family connections, he secures a position working as assistant to Sir Laurence Olivier (Kenneth Branagh).

From the moment Marilyn (Michelle Williams) arrives on the set of The Prince and The Showgirl in the summer of 1956, Olivier is smitten and his wife Vivien Leigh (Julia Ormond) wearily tolerates the obsession. But on set, Olivier's desire turns to frustration as Marilyn fluffs takes and turns up late.

So Olivier asks Colin to win his leading lady's trust and get her to the set on time.

My Week With Marilyn crafts Clark's recollections of that turbulent period into a bittersweet drama laden with the cream of British acting talent.

Adrian Hodges's script glistens with polished one-liners and provides Michelle Williams with a show-stopping role as a cinematic icon that richly deserves Oscar recognition.

She could never match the full luminosity of Monroe but comes close, capturing the vulnerability and mood swings, the naivete and inner conflict.

The Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn The final chapter of the Twilight series has been cleaved in two, with the concluding instalment due in November 2012. When we left Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart), she had chosen vampire Edward (Robert Pattinson) over werewolf Jacob (Taylor Lautner). Jacob is heartbroken, but Bella and Edward marry in front of her parents (Billy Burke, Sarah Clarke) and his blood-sucking clan. Bella falls pregnant during their honeymoon in Rio de Janeiro and her half-human, half-vampire child grows at an accelerated rate. The Quileute wolf pack led by alpha male Sam (Chaske Spencer) prepares to kill Bella and her unborn abomination. Jacob protests and forms a splinter pack with Seth Clearwater (Booboo Stewart) and sister Leah (Julia Jones) to protect the woman he loves.

Arthur Christmas (3D & 2D) Santa's youngest son Arthur (James McAvoy) joins forces with Grandsanta (Bill Nighy) and wrapping elf Bryony (Ashley Jensen) to deliver a gift to young British girl Gwen (Ramona Marquez) gift using an old sleigh and a team of retired reindeers.

Immortals (3D) Many centuries ago the Gods waged war against the Titans and imprisoned these creatures in a cage that can only be broken by a bolt from the mythical Epirus Bow. Megalomaniac King Hyperion (Mickey Rourke) and his hordes declare war on the Gods by ravaging the land in search of the bow.

The Adventures of Tintin: The Secret of The Unicorn (3D & 2D) Tintin (Jamie Bell) buys a model ship and is plunged into a centuries-old mystery involving Ivan Ivanovitch Sakharine (Daniel Craig). Ivan asks Tintin to name his price for the boat but the reporter refuses to sell, sensing the wooden vessel is far more valuable than it first appears.

Detached family home is in sought-after area of Harlow

coverproperty

Location Doulton Close, Church Langley, Harlow

Category Three/four bed detached

Additional Garage conversion, conservatory, driveway

Guide price £279,995

Agent Howick & Brooker, Gothic House, High Street, Old Harlow. Telephone (01279) 418888

AN enlarged, detached property in Doulton Close on the popular Church Langley development, this is an ideal family home with plenty of flexible living accommodation.

Built by Bryant Homes and located within the catchment area of Henry Moore Primary School, the house has been enlarged with the addition of a conservatory as well as a garage conversion, which is currently being used as a bedroom.

Once through the front door, with its pretty covered porch, the entrance hall has doors off to a downstairs cloakroom, lounge and kitchen. Wooden flooring and neutral colours add to this property's light and spacious look.

The 13' x 12'4" lounge is a good size, with a bay window to the front. Double doors lead from the lounge into the dining room, which in turn is open plan to the kitchen.

A door opens from the dining room into the playroom/fourth bedroom which was formerly the garage and next to this is the utility room.

At the back of the house is a delightful conservatory which has double doors opening onto a stylish paved garden with a raised decking area providing plenty of room for entertaining. The garden is west facing and so perfectly situated.

Upstairs, the master bedroom has fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. There are a further two bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The house has a driveway at the front which provides off-street parking.

Church Langley continues to grow in popularity, with its local supermarket, doctor's surgery and schooling. There is easy access to the M11 and the mainline train station.

For full details or to arrange an appointment to view, call Howick & Brooker on (01279) 418888.

There are all sorts of reasons why people put off selling their property in the belief that there could be a better time to do it: it's too cold, it's too wet, the house is not looking its best, Christmas, school holidays, etc. At this time of the year many people say they will wait until the spring before putting their home on the market, as that is supposedly the best time to sell.

Whilst properties certainly look more appealing in the spring, there are solid reasons for selling earlier. Firstly, whilst you can choose when you sell, a buyer's timing is usually more likely to be determined by circumstances rather than the season. Serious buyers won't let Christmas deter them.

Secondly, many properties come onto the market in the spring thereby increasing supply, meaning buyers have more choice and are in a stronger bargaining position, particularly if the market softens.

It also means that, by the time a buyer is found, you will be able to take advantage of this increase in supply yourself as you seek a new home. Having a buyer for your own property ahead of everyone else puts you in a strong position as a purchaser, with a selection of properties from which to choose in a market of buyers who have otherwise yet to sell.

This time of year usually produces a sharp increase in the supply of qualified buyers who want to conclude a sale by Christmas – and often at top prices too.

So why wait, when you can take advantage of today's market? If you are contemplating moving, please phone us on 01279 444988 to discuss how our marketing plan could have you sold by Christmas. Your timing might just be perfect.

Is it time to join Audi's S club?

By Matt Joy

IT would be unreasonable for those sitting at the top of the executive tree to get anything approaching sympathy in these current times.

But spare a thought for those lucky few who have some difficult decisions to make: how many country homes do I need, which private school should I send the kids to and, obviously, what car should I buy?

Spending £80,000 on a new car can never be the work of a moment, especially as having such a large budget doesn't mean a lack of choice. Any premium manufacturer that has serious designs on the well-heeled needs a six-figure flagship and now Audi has a new one to break up the party. The A8 we're already familiar with, as the third generation super saloon appeared almost two years ago and seduced with the combination of peerless design and build quality, a sumptuous cabin and the kind of comfort that would put some luxury hotels to shame.

The previous generation A8s were crowned by a hot S8 version, and so now Audi has applied the tasty S badge to tempt sharp suits who want a little more go.

Not that this means that the discretion for which the A8 is well known has been

FACTfile

Audi S8

£80,000
(estimated)

Engine: 4.0-litre turbocharged petrol producing 513bhp

Transmission: Seven-speed automatic driving all four wheels

Performance: 0-62mph in 4.2s, maximum speed 155mph

Economy: 27.7mpg (combined)

CO₂ Rating: 237g/km

abandoned. Spotting an S8 might take more than a second glance, despite the number of changes.

Up front there is a new one-piece grille, a reshaped front bumper with a discreet front spoiler. There are 19-inch and 20-inch wheels unique to the S8, and the bumper also gets a low-key makeover. Quad exhaust pipes, 'S8' and 'V8T' badges are the most obvious clue that this isn't an ordinary A8.

Arguably this level of subtlety will be too much for the average punter to spot one, but you can understand why an Audi customer would prefer to remain just under the radar.

In truth what makes a performance car is the hardware rather than the window dressing and on this front the S8 is well and truly prepared.

The old S8 was a fine machine, not least because it had the incredible naturally-aspirated V10 that also appears in the R8 supercar. Quite understandably, the need for better economy and emissions means this wonderful engine has been eschewed in favour of something more efficient.

So the new S8 gets a brand-new engine: a twin-turbocharged V8 that will also appear in hot versions of the A7 Sportback and A6, although the S8 gets the most powerful version. And powerful it most certainly is: 513bhp is yours to play with, alongside a mighty 479lb.ft of torque to back it up. Naturally this is fed to the road through the quattro four-wheel drive system with the super-slick S tronic gearbox providing the choice of modes.

Waving goodbye to the sonorous V10 might seem like a shame, but it's hard to argue with the numbers. The new V8 gives 15 per cent more power than the old V10 yet emissions and fuel consumption are down by a remarkable 23 per cent.

And the performance is even better: it blitzes the 0-62mph sprint in an outrageous 4.2 seconds and although it is limited to 155mph like most, it gets there a whole lot faster. The twin-turbochargers ensure torque right through the rev range and regardless of the current speed, the S8 surges forward in a relentless fashion.

But the S8 is still a luxury saloon, all be it one with spectacular acceleration. Audi has fitted it with an impressive noise cancellation system, so that the cabin is even more hushed than the standard car.

At cruising speeds it is remarkably silent, and the easy-going nature of the driving experience makes it easy to see how vast distances could be covered with complete ease. Add to that the cabin – which is superbly spacious, tastefully finished and packed with equipment – and the S8 really does have the complete package.

It also has more tricks up its sleeve. The new turbo V8 has a cylinder deactivation system that automatically shuts down four of the eight cylinders when not required. Cruise along at a steady speed and a little green symbol pops up in the instrument panel to indicate it is running on only four cylinders.

When driven normally the S8 is barely any less comfortable than the standard saloon, and yet when fully exercised it is extremely capable and entertaining. A total petrolhead might want an R8 instead, but for a blend of speed and comfort as you see fit, the S8 provides the ideal combination.

Scrap

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

End of the road? Get over it and move on with your local ATF:

B & T Motor Salvage

We offer free collection, on the same day if necessary, using our own recovery vehicles and issue a Certificate of Destruction from the Department of Vehicle Licensing Authority via our direct link to their website. Payment per vehicle negotiable.

If you're aged 16 to 24 . . . we guarantee to boost your job market standing!

This is where you start turning your life around . . .

Yes, times are tough. And the papers are full of doom and gloom. It doesn't seem right, does it?

But winners turn challenge into opportunity.

Here at Pitman, we know what you're up against. And here's the good news . . . we have an unbeatable track record of turning the kind of challenges you're facing into real job opportunities — for people just like you. With a Pitman Diploma under your belt you can walk into interviews knowing you have the core skills employers are looking for. And in this market, that's a gilt-edged competitive advantage. The kind you need to succeed.

Call or drop in for a chat whenever you like. Please feel free to bring a friend/family member (in fact we highly recommend this). Just call Amanda on 01279 466 200 to arrange a meeting and take your first steps to a brighter future.

Articles for Sale

Turn your unwanted items into cash!

easy ads In-paper and online

For items under £250 in the Herts & Lea Valley Star,
Harlow Star, Mercury Series
and the Observer Series

To advertise your articles for sale for the price of just a phone call or text, just follow these two simple steps...

1 Before calling us, write down all that you want your advertisement to say. There is a minimum of 12 words per advert, but you can have as many classified adverts as you need. Remember, strictly one item per phone call and the item must be priced at £250 or less. Any items received that do not carry a price will not be published.

2 Now call us on 0905 624 2025
LINES OPEN 24 HOURS PER DAY SEVEN DAYS PER WEEK.
This service lasts approximately two minutes, plus the length of your message. Calls charged at £1.02 per minute plus network extras; calls from mobile will cost considerably more. Service provided J-Media (UK) Ltd.

or text 87070

Start your text with HEN then your advert to a maximum of 20 words. You do not need to add your phone number unless it is different to the mobile used to text the advert.
Example: HEN (space) G. Plan two piece suite, two seater sofa and armchair, super condition £99. Charged at £1.50 per text plus normal network charges. Only one item per text.

If you have any queries relating to advertisements placed via this service please call our helpline...

Helpline: 0844 8001188

OPENING HOURS: 9AM - 5PM

Please allow for a possible two/three week delay. This offer is restricted to private articles for sale and does not include articles wanted, pets, cars, motor spares, boats, motorcycles, caravans, property and investments, imitation or unlicensed firearms, offensive weapons and cannot be cancelled or amended. Advertisements will be deleted where callers name, address and telephone number have not been provided.

For articles over £250 you can also place an advert at our office or simply call 01992 526666 or email advertising@hertsessexnews.co.uk

SUCCESS: Molly Gardner, centre, with school pals at the Uttlesford District School Cross Country Championships (s)

Molly shines at cross country championships

HARLOW Athletic Club starlet Molly Gardner won the Year 6 girls race at the Uttlesford District Primary School Championships for the third year in a row.

Held over 1,300 metres, the 11-year-old clocked 4 minutes 57 secs from 43 starters.

Molly got a good start and was comfortable throughout.

In the Year 3 race over same distance Molly's sister and fellow Harlow AC member Isobel Gardner, 7, had an excellent run for third. She was second but missed out right on the line.

In the Year 5 race Isobel's older sister Beth Gardner, 9, was 9th over the same distance.

Cricket club get OK to join bigger league

He said: "It's a big challenge and a big step-up. It will be a steep learning curve for the club.

"We aim to run five sides next year and two will be in the Herts and Essex Cricket League."

Town were accepted after their facilities and administration satisfied League officials.

The club's fourth team will continue to play in the Herts & Essex League and its new fifth team will also join this League.

Goddard, who stepped down as first team captain at the end of last season after six years in charge, added: "There's no need for any of our best young players to move. I definitely think we can keep all our players.

"It's an exciting time for the club but we want to remain a family club too."

The club will operate a cross country

Molly and Isobel will represent Uttlesford at the Essex Schools Championships to be held at Southend in March.

The trio shone in a Stansted qualifying stage at Stansted Mountfitchet High School.

For the third year in a row, Molly won her event from 35 starters.

The two-time reigning Independent Schools Association national 600m champion led most of the way in the Year 6 girls race on a flat, grassland course.

In the Year 5 girls race, Beth Gardner was second and in the Year 3 race Isobel won.

third pitch at Passmores School in Traces Road.

Goddard said: "The third pitch will be at Passmores School and we have lots of youngsters coming through.

"We had eight U-12s at the West of Essex trials recently.

"We need to have as many sides as we can."

Harlow Town's first team will play in division three, two divisions below neighbours Harlow Cricket Club's first team.

Goddard stressed the club have a lot to do to match up to their Old Harlow rivals.

Goddard added: "We have got some way to get to Harlow's standards. They have been playing at the next level for a lot longer than us."

The club have not yet named Goddard's replacement as first team captain. He is expected to be named in the next fortnight.

Jo helps England team to win World Series

HARLOW'S Jo Harten was celebrating after being in the England team that won the World Netball Series in Liverpool.

England clinched the title with a sensational 33-26 victory over reigning champions New Zealand in front of a big crowd.

The England team's

thrilling display of skill, determination and passion guided them to their first ever major trophy.

Harten, a former student at St Mark's, lives on the Church Langley estate in Harlow. She said: "It was a fantastic feeling to lift the trophy in front of our home crowd and after such a tense final.

"Since we won the bronze medal at the World Championships this summer, and the bronze medal at the Commonwealth Games last year, the team has really pulled together to become a true force to be reckoned with – I feel this is the start of something special."

After finishing fourth in the group stages, England claimed a convincing victory over Australia in the semi-finals setting up a final winner-takes-all game against the Silver Ferns from New Zealand.

Late strikes rescue point

IT was the late, late show as goals from James Smith and skipper Luke Krzoska rescued a point for third-placed Harlow at East London.

Harlow were trailing 2-0 with six minutes left on Saturday when Smith fired home after linking well with Craig Cholerton to halve the deficit.

Then only three minutes were left when a three-man move ended with Smith setting up Krzoska from a penalty corner and he wrong-footed the home keeper to seal a point for Harlow.

Captain Krzoska said: "I'm very happy with the team. They never gave up and showed great character against one of the top teams in the league."

Earlier, Smith got the ball in the home net twice, but these efforts were ruled out for various infringements.

The hosts went ahead midway through the first half.

Good passing meant that a forward found himself with space and time to slot the ball past Shaun Hastler in the Harlow goal.

Things got worse for Harlow before half-time with Andy Boughtwood limping off with an ankle injury. He was replaced by coach Richard Norris.

After the break, Harlow suffered another setback when Kyle Plumridge went off with a knee injury. Bravely, Boughtwood returned to the action but was clearly suffering with his injured ankle.

East London's second goal came by way of another counter-attack after 55 minutes, just as Harlow began to look dangerous.

However, Harlow pulled a goal back through Smith and then threw caution to the wind.

This late pressure was rewarded through Krzoska.

HARLOW: Hastler, Castle, Plumridge, Grace, Krzoska, Symonds, Smith, Cholerton, Mace, Kirk, Boughtwood. Sub: Norris.

Clinical edge keeps Ladies in title hunt

THE superior firepower of Harlow Ladies' first team was the difference in their home victory over Chelmsford III.

The visitors were unable to take advantage of the breezy conditions which were in their favour in the first period and the hosts broke the deadlock after 12 minutes on Saturday.

Claire Atack's shot was too hot to handle for the visiting goalkeeper as it flew into the net.

With Sam Wilkinson

directing proceedings for Chelmsford, her accurate and strong passing kept Harlow midfielders Carolyn Welsford and Becks Dolan on their toes.

As the first half drew to a close, Chelmsford increased the pressure but Sue Douglas and Petra Trimble combined to thwart them with clearances.

After the break, home keeper Linda Rowley produced a fine double save from close range. Harlow doubled their lead on 53 minutes.

A slick counter-attack set up Anna Ferdinando, coming in from the right, and she fired home.

A Welsford shot struck a post before Harlow put the game beyond doubt on the hour.

Shots from Atack and Sonya Amos were well saved by the Chelmsford keeper, but Georgina Esterhuysen slammed home a rebound from the left side.

Chelmsford got a consolation goal with the final play of the match, converting a penalty corner.

HARLOW: Rowley, Douglas, Trimble, Kerner-Bignel, Spencer, Welsford, Dolan, Ferdinando, Esterhuysen, Amos, Atack.

First win for new-boys

darts

BUCANEERS registered their first win since joining the Harlow & District Premier Darts League at the ninth attempt when they won 5-3 at Golden Swift.

Meanwhile, Sawbridgeworth Brewery beat Staple Tye Colts 7-1 with the help of a 180 from Rob Revell.

Damian Green registered his 5th 180 of the season for Servo Link in their 7-1 triumph at Stow Snooker.

Colt Hatch and Tye Green Foxes shared the points in a 4-4 draw, while Moot House lost 5-3 at home to club-mates Moot House Raiders.

White Admiral came back from 2-0 down to win 6-2 at The Crusader.

Duo get Essex nod after starring at UK/European trials

cross country

PERRY Rowan and Canaan Solomon have been selected to represent Essex at the SEAA Inter Counties Cross Country Championships in Croydon on December 10.

The Harlow-based students got the nod after faring well in the McCain UK Cross Country and European trials race at Sefton Park in Liverpool on Saturday.

Mark Hall student Canaan (13) was leading an exciting U-13 boys 3km race before he was overtaken just before the end by Leicester's Ben Dijkstra.

Canaan clocked 10 minutes and 22 seconds to claim the silver medal.

Meanwhile, Perry (15), who attends Burnt Mill School, ran brilliantly to clock 10:36 and finish 15th in the U-15 boys 3km race.

Water Lane Primary School pupil Alfie Poole (10) ran excellently to finish 13th from 110 starters in the U-11s mixed 1.9km race in 7:31.

Other results at Liverpool: Rosie Poole (12), Mark Hall, U-13 girls 3km race 21st; 12:12; Alicia McArdeil (14), Mark Hall, U-15 girls 3km 37th, 12:00.

Harlow AC results at U-11s cross country at Hylands Park, Chelmsford: Girls 2km race: Amy White 1st; Claudia Andrews 2nd; Sarah Simmons 6th; Lauren Barker 8th; Jade Quinn Berry 27th. Boys 2km race: Lewis Harknett 1st; Owen Harknett 4th; Daniel Evans 8th; Charlie Lutz-Collier 14th, Lewis Powell 21st; George Harris 27th.

● HARLOW Running Club member Susan Dewen completed the Gunpowder Park Run 5K race in Waltham Abbey in an excellent 28 mins 35 secs.

Injury-hit Rams need to Camp out

Maidstone 50, Harlow 0

RFU Senior Vase, third round

THE Rams will hope to bounce back when they resume their league campaign with a home clash against lowly Campion this Saturday.

They will also be hoping that skipper Shaun Roberts and wing Werne Kotze have recovered from injuries sustained when a weakened Harlow side were thrashed by Maidstone in the third round of the RFU Senior Vase last weekend.

Harlow were missing the likes of scrum-half Lee Harron, back row forward Paul Eynon and centre Wayne Heapy against a team that plays at the same level as they do in the rugby pyramid.

Harlow had a number of players playing out of position in Saturday's match at The Mote and went behind in the first five minutes.

A catch-and-drive move from the home forwards resulted in Olly Newton touching down an unconverted try.

MISSING IN ACTION: Lee Harron, holding ball, was missing against Maidstone as Rams fielded an inexperienced side (HSP0785859)

Shortly after, Harlow missed a penalty before fly-half Sam Ellis kicked one for the hosts on 18 minutes, putting the Kent side 8-0 ahead.

Maidstone increased their lead on 20 minutes when Dan Eastwood scored an unconverted try in the corner.

Ellis then kicked a second penalty before home outside centre Dan Graves touched down the hosts' third try on the half-hour mark.

Harlow then had a good period without scoring, but Maidstone led 21-0 at half-time.

There was no stopping Maidstone after the break and the influential Ellis set up Andre Toma to touch down on 43 minutes.

Ellis kicked the conversion.

The hosts scored again on 58 minutes when space was created for Eastwood to score his second try following poor Harlow defending.

After injuries to Kotze and Roberts, Harlow were struggling in the last 10 minutes.

Maidstone were reduced to 14 through injury but scored three more tries in this final period.

Ally Moss, Eastwood (completing a hat-trick) and Olly Rogers touched down. Ellis kicked one more conversion.

HARLOW: Webb, Ward, Mackie, Hills, Kotze (Jenner 47), Dobson, Milne (Woodington 47), Cunningham, Wilkins, Prindiville (Branch 67), Twiner, Palmer, Roberts (Mallia), M. Bowering, Hawkins.

Over-time loss a heartbreaker

THERE was a heartbreaking defeat in over-time for Harlow Hawks as a huge home crowd at the leisurezone could not drive them onto victory against Loughborough.

For the second game in the space of three days Harlow faced opposition who applied full court pressure defence for the entire duration of the game, which made Hawks work hard for their points.

After Loughborough scored the game's first points, Harlow fought back and then Luke Atkinson converted a foul shot to give Hawks the lead.

Simon Atkinson extended this with a tap back, before Loughborough went back in front.

Scores from Chris Jackson and Adam Ball cut the deficit, but Hawks trailed 13-11 at the end of the first quarter.

Loughborough started to pick off some of the Hawks' passes and convert their lay-ups to extend their lead to 10 points in the second quarter.

Simon Atkinson was the main source for Hawks' points with a number of strong moves under the basket.

Hawks went into half-time down 31-24. At the start of the third quarter, Loughborough extended their lead.

Luke Atkinson then sunk two free-throws, the start of a personal eight-point haul, to get Hawks back into the game.

Harlow finished the quarter strongly as Ball finished off a number of moves, sparking a tremendous response from fans.

Hawks tied the scores at 41 a piece in the final minute of the quarter but the visitors went 45-43 after that.

Hawks tied the scores again in the final quarter and finally took the lead after a fast break lay-up was finished by Lee Jones following excellent defence. Jones also converted another lay-up.

After Loughborough had missed a pair of free-throws, Simon Atkinson gave Hawks a five-point lead going into the final two minutes.

Loughborough responded with a crucial three-pointer and forced a few turnovers before tying the game and then taking the lead with 24 seconds left on the clock.

An excellent move in the post by Ball tied the scores again, while Loughborough missed a chance to win the match in normal time right on the buzzer.

A pair of three-pointers from Loughborough near the start of the extra period, accompanied by Zaf Niaz's long three-pointer kept the game in the balance.

However, the Warwickshire side sank their free-throws to seal a 59-69 thriller.

Coach Niaz said: "We have had to work hard in both the last two games and we have been in positions to give us a chance to get something out of them."

"The loss against Loughborough was very tough especially as we had come back so well and put ourselves in a position to win the game, but it was not to be." HARLOW HAWKS: Ball (15pts), S. Atkinson (11pts), L. Atkinson (11pts), S. Niaz (7pts), Z. Niaz (5pts), Jones (4pts), Allan (2pts), Oyedinde (2pts), Jackson (2pts), Spashett, Burgess.

Hawks must respect refs says coach

Herts Warriors 88,

Harlow Hawks 79

Herts Basketball League, division one

HARLOW Hawks player-coach Shab Niaz was left fuming after a loss of discipline was instrumental in their defeat at Herts Warriors.

As well as arguing among themselves at the start of the third quarter, Hawks showed dissent to the referee.

Warriors sunk the resultant free throws in the Herts League clash.

Niaz said: "We have made quite a bit of progress over the last month, but the single flash point of disagreement between players was not the main thing that I was disappointed with – it was the continual questioning of the game officials."

"It's only a few players doing this and this nonsense has to stop as the refs are not going to change their mind after decisions are given or not given so they have to concentrate on getting on with the game and play."

There was a frantic start on Thursday and a number of turnovers led to fast break points for Warriors.

The visitors responded with 12 points in the last two minutes and Warriors led 25-22 going into the second quarter.

Points from Lee Jones, Adam Ball and Chris Jackson drew the scores level (43-43) by the halfway stage.

The second half saw Luke Atkinson keep the scoreboard ticking over for the visitors, but Warriors continued to score freely.

At the end of the third, the home side had a slight advantage (66-59).

Dissent resulted in a technical foul and Warriors successfully sunk the free throws as Hawks players continued to argue among themselves.

Joe Taffe-Atkins downed three three-pointers, while player-coach Niaz added another but the nine-point deficit proved too much as the hosts held out for the points.

HARLOW HAWKS: Taffe-Atkins (20pts), L. Atkinson (16pts), Ball (11pts), S. Niaz (8pts), Z. Niaz (6pts), Jackson (6pts), S. Atkinson (6pts), Moss (4pts), Jones (2pts), Burgess, Spashett.

Ladies Hack down rivals

A SLOW start was overcome by Harlow Rugby Club's women's team as they bounced back to win 32-5 at Hackney in the first round of the National Challenge Cup.

The East Londoners took an early lead after they turned over the visitors' possession and scored an unconverted try.

Harlow rallied and dominated the set-pieces up front, equalising when prop Tina Baldwin touched down an unconverted try from a rolling maul.

The Essex side were slicker after the break and centre Dani McKenna and full-back Sarah Stimpson dashed over for tries.

Stimpson converted her try. Further tries came from Nikky Millman and Dani McKenna.

These were sandwiched between Abi Perry's try after a thrilling 50m sprint to the line.

HARLOW: Stimpson, Morgan, McKenna, McLellan, Perry, Gibson, Smith, Baldwin, Marshall (Dixon 35), Wooller, Nickell, Lee (Billings 50), Doherty (O'Donnell 50), Millman, Cotterill.

Lights, camera and match action thanks to film firm

THERE were cameras filming Harlow Town's FA Trophy match against Lowestoft Town in a pioneering project which will enable fans to start watching all Hawks' games on the internet.

The Ryman League division one north club was chosen by Upload Football.com as it launched an exciting new project.

Fans can subscribe to the Hoddesdon-based company at a cost of £2.99 a month and this will enable them to watch all of Harlow's games.

Of this sum, half the money will go to Harlow Town FC.

Hawks co-owner Tom Cunningham explained: "If you speak to any non-League football club many are struggling [financially], but this is a way of bringing much-needed revenue into the club."

The new television channel will launch in January.

Alex Short, the business development manager for Upload

Distribution, explained: "We've been using Harlow Town FC as a model for our football channel. They're a progressive club with a lovely new ground and we hope to use them to highlight the benefits of our new idea to non-league football clubs."

Upload Football.com hopes the project will spread to not only all levels of non-league football, but also other sports such as rugby.

Upload Managing Director Justin Smith explained that the company had opted to use Harlow Town FC because of its excellent ground and facilities.

He added: "It might be that a fan has missed a home game or cannot get to an away game. This way they will not miss a thing."

The company will give Harlow access to the software needed to upload its games onto its website in the future.

Harlow will have its own person videoing matches to upload to the web.

Record cup win as Harlow crush Essex rivals

Harlow Tn 11 (eleven), Maldon & Tiptree Utd 1

Essex Senior Cup, fourth round

IT was literally men against boys as Harlow Town rewrote the club's record book when they thrashed an inexperienced Maldon & Tiptree United side at home in the fourth round of the Essex Senior Cup, writes DAVID RIMMER.

Maldon, disrupted by the resignation of joint bosses Brad King and Glen Knight a fortnight ago and the departure of most of the first team squad, fielded virtually a youth team on Tuesday night.

The Hawks were ruthless, scoring 11 goals against their hapless opponents and registered what is believed to be their biggest ever win in the competition.

Harlow's highest previous win was 6-1 against Halstead in the 1970-71 season.

It was also the biggest ever win at Barrows Farm.

James Peagram grabbed a hat-trick and new signing Murat Karagul and ex-Maldon winger Michael Deane both struck twice.

Peagram opened the scoring for Harlow when he tucked home from the edge of the box on 21 minutes.

Deane scored the second for Harlow on 25 minutes after a good pass from Piers Wixon.

Maldon were chasing shadows and it was 3-0 on 33 minutes through a Getro Kilapi header. A minute later Wixon rifled past the bewildered visitors' keeper Joe Fowler.

Brad Cooke replied on 38 minutes with a 25-yard shot and it was 4-1 at the break.

The Hawks' juggernaut turned into overdrive after the break.

Peagram converted a Danny Brown cross for 5-1 on 53 minutes before the young striker drilled in for his hat-trick to make it 6-1 to Harlow on the hour.

Those that made it out on this cold night were certainly being rewarded in goals.

On 53 minutes, Karagul then scored his first since signing on loan, after making space for himself in the box.

Deane's second from a Karagul cross made it 8-1 on 63 minutes, and two minutes later Brown converted a penalty after Karagul was fouled in the box.

A Karagul shot took it into double figures on 72 minutes.

Hawks assistant boss Christian Wheeler, a 52nd-minute sub, grabbed Harlow's last goal on 84 minutes with a cracking shot after being teed up by Karagul.

Hawks boss Danny Chapman said: "We got back on the winning track. I realise they were a young side but what pleased me was we kept going even when we got five or six ahead. We kept on doing the right things."

HARLOW TN: Dumoulin 6, Taylor 6 (Wheeler 52 7), Brown 7, Haverson 6, Kirby 6, Kilapi 6 (Maxwell 45 6), Peagram 8, Lalite 6, Wixon (Smith 54), Karagul 8, Deane 7. Sub not used: Marshall.

● HARLOW Town have received a boost with the news that fellow Ryman League division one north play-off hopefuls Grays Athletic have been deducted three points for fielding an ineligible player.

ALEMITE Athletic are third in the premier division of the Hertford & District League after a 6-2 home win over Heath Rovers on Saturday.

Scorers were Blake (2), Gavin Cockman, Hull, Smith, Walton and Foster.

In division one, Alemite's reserves lost 4-1 at Greenbury United reserves in the Reserve Cup quarter-final.

Lowe blow as late goal sinks Hawks

Harlow Tn 1, Lowestoft Tn 2

FA Trophy, 3rd qual rnd

By ALAN SCOTT

THE Hawks paid the price for a series of missed chances as they failed to make it a hat-trick of upsets in the FA Carlsberg Trophy at Barrows Farm.

Lowestoft Town, in a play-off position in the Ryman premier, scored an 83rd-minute winner to deny Harlow Town in this third and final qualifying round match on Saturday.

Lowestoft sub Jamie Forshaw had struck twice to turn this game on its head after Harlow led for nearly an hour.

Harlow went in front on 10 minutes when Piers Wixon fired in from 25 yards after seizing on a sloppy pass from Lowestoft skipper Greg Crane.

This was the striker's fourth goal in four games. He executed a lovely low drive into the right bottom corner.

Harlow should have scored again on 17 minutes. James Peagram was through with just the keeper to beat but made a hash of it.

HEADS UP: Hawks skipper Danny Brown tangles with the Lowestoft keeper (HSP0787138)

The ball fell loose to Luke Marshall and his centre back into the box found Peagram again but his shot from point blank range hit the keeper.

At the other end, Bert

Bossu superbly tipped away a shot from Michael Frew on 34 minutes to keep the Harlow lead intact.

Just before the break, a goalbound effort from Peagram was tipped away by the busy Lowestoft keeper.

Peagram went close a minute after the break, while a wonderful tip-over save from Bossu stopped a free-kick from Lowestoft left-back Adam Smith which was heading for the top right corner.

On 55 minutes, Peagram was through again but shot straight at the keeper under pressure from a Lowestoft defender.

On 68 minutes, Mark Taylor's free-kick for Hawks hit the bar.

And these missed chances came back to haunt Harlow as Lowestoft levelled on 71 minutes. Forshaw slotted into the bottom right corner from about 9 yards out from Smith's pass.

Then just as a replay loomed, another long ball from the back was latched on by Forshaw who chipped Bossu from the edge of the box.

Chapman said: "I was very disappointed with the result but I was very pleased with the performance."

"They are a division above and at the top of it. We outplayed them for long periods of the game. With a bit more composure in front of goal we should have been out of sight by half-time."

"In the second half we were dominating the game. It was two individual mistakes that cost us the game. The higher you go up in football the more you get punished for your mistakes."

HARLOW TN: Bossu 7, Bruno 6, Brown 6, Haverson 6, Kirby 7, Kilapi 7, Marshall 7, Lalite 8, Wixon 7, PEAGRAM 8, Taylor 7. Subs: Smith, Wheeler, Maxwell, Deane, Dumoulin. Att: 353.

Club's vice-president dies at 64

A MINUTE'S applause was held in memory of Hawks vice-president Barry Kitteridge, who passed away at the age of 64, prior to Saturday's FA Trophy match against Lowestoft Town.

A regular figure at Harlow Town's old ground at the Sportcentre, Barry attended many games both home and away and was made a vice-president in 1997.

Barry, who suffered from Multiple Sclerosis, died on Friday November 18. His condition had worsened in the last year.

As a youngster, Barry – brother-in-law to former Hawks chairman Carol Bothwell – played in goal for the West Ham United Academy side of the early 1960s.

He went on to play for various

TRIBUTES: Hawks vice-president Barry Kitteridge, who has died at the age of 64 (S) teams in Harlow, later helping coach his son Nathan, who followed his father by playing between the sticks.

A club spokesman said: "During his time, Barry had built up a network of contacts in the game and these contracts often helped Barry pass information to the management of a player's availability."

"Barry was supported by his wife Sally and their family who helped out at home games and this led to other family members attending regularly when they found themselves wrapped up in Barry's infectious love of not only Harlow Town FC but also the game itself. Barry will be sadly missed by all that knew him."

His widow Sally said: "I think he fought his illness with vigour and and loved and enjoyed life for as long as possible."

The funeral will take place tomorrow (Friday) at 2.30pm at Harlow Crematorium.

Frontiers seal narrow victory

FRONTIERS edged out Hertfordshire Rangers in division one of the Footprint Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District League.

Paul Eeles, Simon Gough and Lyndon Taylor struck in their 3-2 victory.

Third-placed Northolt beat Potter Street 1-0 away. Chris Gill got the only goal.

In the Interdivisional Plate, Sheering reserves reached the second round. Daniel Rappe (2) and James King struck in the 3-1 victory at home to North Weald reserves.

Lower Street beat Birchanger 4-2 to progress to the next round.

Premier division strugglers Albury were edged out in a nine-goal thriller against Avonside Rangers.

Oscar Nisbet hit a hat-trick in leaders Heath Rovers reserves' 3-2 home win against Sheering.

Other results: Div one: Avondale Rangers 8, Badgers 1; Frontiers res 2, Harbridge Ath 4 (Stefan Banaszak, Charlie Pollard, Martin Welch, Tom Edwards).

Interdivisional Plate 1st rnd: Dunmow Rhodes 1, Hatfield Heath 3.

UNITED FRONT: New signing Scott Smith

Hawks sign Galaxy star

Striker makes switch after LA exit

FORMER LA Galaxy striker Scott Smith wants to fire Hawks up the table – and kick-start his professional career.

Smith, who was one of two Englishmen at the Californian giants – along with David Beckham – could be in line for his first start for Harlow Town at home to Ryman division one north basement club Ilford this Saturday.

The ex-Barnet forward has returned to his home country following the end of his deal at the MLS club in the United States – and has been linked with a move to Conference club Lincoln City. The 20-year-old Londoner's move to Barrows Farm was set up by an agent friend of Hawks' assistant boss Christian Wheeler.

Wheeler joked on Twitter: "Six or seven out this week. I'll just go and sign a kid from LA Galaxy. My contacts are wasted in the Ryman!"

Smith played for the Californian club's U-20 side until injury curtailed his spell in the States.

Smith told the Star: "I tore my thigh in January. I was out for six months. I have to get myself fit. I will be [at Harlow] as long as the manager wants me here."

"I'm between 70 to 80 per cent fit. I want to take it step by step."

Wheeler told the Star: "He was just recommended to me by an agent. We are just having a look at him. We are so short of numbers at the moment. There are so many players injured."

"He might go elsewhere. I think maybe his two years [at LA Galaxy] are done. There is nothing concrete for us."

Smith made his Hawks debut when he came on as a late substitute in the 2-1 FA Trophy defeat against Lowestoft Town on Saturday (see report on page 71).

He was originally selected for a trial at LA Galaxy at the end of 2009 after impressing in the youth team at Barnet.

From a pool of around 1,600 footballers, Smith went on to make the final cut of 26.

He scored twice on his debut as a striker for the LA Galaxy U-20 team in July 2010 against San Diego.

He said at the time: "I'm very proud to say that I was chosen for the final squad and am now 'the other Englishman' at LA Galaxy."

Smith watched as Beckham's team lifted the MLS Cup in the USA in November.

Right-back Donny Barnard (groin) and Tom Bruno (Achilles) are doubtful for Saturday's match and Tuesday's home game against leaders Needham Market. Striker James Bunn (thigh) and defender Lamar Lemonious (knee) are ruled out.

Chapman added: "Tuesday's game is massive. I'm confident if someone finishes higher than Needham Market they will win the league."

Cricket club get OK to join bigger league

SHEPHERD Neame Essex officials have delivered good news to Harlow Town Cricket Club – after accepting their bid to switch to the bigger league.

This will mean a jump in standard for the club.

Town operated up to four teams in the Herts & Essex Cricket League, mainly covering east Herts, west Essex and North London, since 2006.

The Shepherd Neame Essex League committee voted in Harlow Town at its annual meeting. The Ash Tree Field club's top three teams will start playing from 2012.

Harlow Town's 2011 first team skipper Vic Goddard, who as Passmores School headteacher earned national fame in the Channel 4 TV documentary Educating Essex, emphasised the
